WHO LOVES MORE?

A young man wrote the following note to his love interest: "Sweetheart, if this world was as hot as the Sahara desert, I would crawl on my knees through the burning sand to come to you. If the world would be like the Atlantic Ocean, I would swim through shark infested waters to come to you. I would fight the fiercest dragon to be by your side. So, my dear, I'll see you on Thursday ... if it doesn't rain." If you had received such a note, you would question the young man's affection?

It's startling how shallow our affections can be! We boldly acknowledge our love for God, but many times, our actions betray our profession. We vow loyalty to God and His church through faithful participation in prayers, presence, gifts, service, and witness. Like the young man in our story, we'd crawl on our knees, swim shark infested waters, and fight the fiercest dragon, but ...

What if we need a little time away, isn't it okay to miss church? What if we don't like the pastor, or what if we don't approve of the direction of the church, or what if ... then isn't it okay to skip out, to withhold tithes and offerings, to just sit on the pew for a while and do nothing, to spread nothing but bad news and gossip about the church? No! Not if we love God!

This Sunday, we will encounter a woman whose devotion to Jesus was so profound that she endured the scorn of her peers, the economic hardship, and the humiliation of the moment to express her love. Jesus said she did so because she loved more because she was forgiven more.

How do you love ... Tucker
